

The Planning Dep^t

22/4/24

Sirs,

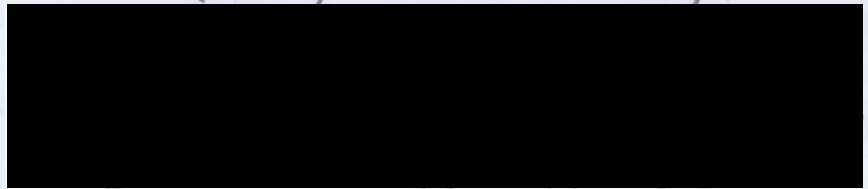

I strongly object to the proposed Brooklands Form Development of housing in the Whitstable area.

My wife and I came to Whitstable from Aylesbury in Buckinghamshire, because the town was being 'developed' in the same way as is proposed for Whitstable.

Aylesbury is now unrecognisable as the original pretty town that it was. Its history has gone. The sprawl that is now Aylesbury has ruined the surrounding land (from farmland and prettiness), there is sewage and water problems, the resulting population boom has choked schools, doctors and local roads. We have seen the same things slowly happening to our once-lovely Whitstable.

Please do not let this once-beautiful, historic little town turn into an ugly
urban sprawl - just to line the pockets of some money-grubbers.

Very sincerely,

E.G. FETHERS
