To Whom it May Concern

Not to be too direct, but are you having a laugh with the proposition of a development of 1400 houses on the present Brooklands Farm land?

Have you seen the amount of traffic and the congestion on the roads throughout the Whitstable area?

Do you live here? Do you have any idea how difficult it is to get round the area in a car?

I adamantly object to this proposed development. It is ill conceived, negligent of real consequences for local residents and based on a flawed assessment that more houses are needed in this small town.

It is greed and desire that are the foundation of these ridiculously oversized developments.

I object. I object. I object.

Kind Regards A McCarthy
