To whom it may concern,

Every window, every door and every fence has a poster in it, objecting to the development of Brooklands farm and the rationale is clear: given the local context of sewage-in-the-sea, the prospect of developing this latest tranche of new homes is unwelcome enough, but that, of course, is the least of it in terms of the many ways in which this development will impact on this area (I'm a long-term resident of [REDACTED]). I am writing to add my objections to Policy W4 Brooklands Farm and would welcome a receipt of my objection accordingly.

Regards,
Phil Gomm
