As a resident of central [REDACTED] for over [REDACTED] years, I wish to OBJECT to the obscene ignorant proposal of such a hair-brain development. How the roads are to cope, I guess no one has considered. Or the lack of a hospital that does not take emergencies, or doctor surgeries, or NHS dentists, or drainage or the total destruction of what is currently there. I struggle to grasp CCC thoughts on a proposed scheme of this size. Hence my OBJECTION. It is that simple. One does not require a phd to grasp basic sums and instincts of fellow human behaviour.

Sincerely

Tony Barnes
