

Dear Sir or Madam,

I am writing to OBJECT to the Brooklands Farm development of One Thousand Four Hundred more houses being built on good farmland, soon there won't be any land to grow crops & produce food for all the people moving here, many from London, in the Big Houses being built, local young people from Whitstable cannot afford to rent or buy their own homes.

This area was once the Garden of England, but it is being concreted over.

The water & sewerage and the & rest of the infrastructure is really bad.

Also this development would result in further loss of our wildlife habitat, extra pressure on our Doctors & Hospitals, & further damage to our already crumbling roads & highways in Kent.

PLEASE, PLEASE STOP THIS DEVELOPMENT BEFORE ITS TOO LATE

Yours Sincerely

P.S. We moved here in our house in
