I strongly object to the horrendous plans to build on brooklands farm. I don't believe whitstable has the amenities or infrastructure to accommodate so many extra people. I believe that traffic will become a huge problem in the surrounding areas , what will happen to the sewage etc on a system that can't cope already. I think this area has contributed enough areas for housing over the last few years with recent developments and housing estate construction not to mention massive habitat loss for local wildlife. Please do not allow this terrible idea to commence it will ruin whitstable and adjacent areas , Thank you Joe Nicholls
