Good morning,

I wish to add my whole hearted objection to the proposed development plans for the Brooklands Farm site.

Having been born and raised in Whitstable , I have witnessed the continued over development of which was once a pleasant and friendly town, to the point where I am seriously considering moving away to enjoy the rest of my retirement.

Whitstable has not got the sufficient infrastructure to cope with the current Thanet Way / Golden Hill development let alone building another village alongside Chestfield !

For what it's worth, I wish my name be added to what I can only assume is a huge and growing list of local objectors.

Thank you,
Richard Clarke
