I object to the Brooklands Farm development for the following reasons.
More houses mean a lot more sewage into an already full system.
There will be a huge amount, possibly 2000, more Cars on and already crumbling road system.
At the moment the healthcare system and dentists are already full - without all these extra people.
Whitstable and Chestfield will lose its green countryside - it will just become a concrete jungle.
Yours.
