I oppose the Merton Farm housing project.

I do not think the council has fully explored other ways to provide new housing.

1. I think the centre of town is dying and much could be done to rejuvenate this area. More people living centrally is good.
2. The infrastructure around the town doesn't support more housing.
3. The focus on new housing never seems to include enough amenities and facilities .
4. The architecture is ugly.
- 6 The council is losing sight of the fact that Canterbury is a provincial town - not a suburb of London.

Please don't bolt on more housing to Canterbury- I feel that I'm losing my 'green' lungs.

Kind regards,
Ginny Hawkins
