To whom it may concern,

I am writing in response to the following question:

Do you have any comments on the proposed deletion of Land north of the University of Kent (Policy C12)?

I am very relieved to hear that C12 Policy for 2,000 homes has been rejected and that common sense has prevailed.

The impact on the local area and community would have been devastating during the construction and afterward the reality of so many home, traffic, local services and wildlife.

It is now my hope that this area be protected for future generations, and no other housing projects ever be allowed to prevail on this site, to this end I am in favour of the proposed Blean Biopark.

Kind regards,

Mr Paul Thompson
