--Email From External Account--My response to the question: "Do you have any comments on the proposed deletion of land north of the University of Kent (Policy C12)?"

I would like to congratulate you for proposing the deletion of this policy from the local plan. Such a large development on that site would be entirely inappropriate, destroying the separate identities of Blean, Tyler Hill and Rough Common, and converting them into a new town that would, inevitably, at a future date merge with Canterbury. Additionally, the local road network is totally unsuited to such a development, as it can barely cope with the present volume of traffic at busy periods.
