To whom it may concern,

Myself and my family have lived in Blean for the past 40 plus years and we have recently moved to Tyler Hill.

The reason we chose to live in Blean is because it's a beautiful area on the outskirts of a lovely city. Our previous house at Tile kiln hill blean, overlooked the crab and winkle pathway and the fields adjoining Blean church (where myself and my husband were married).

To develop on the land for housing would deeply impact the nature and wildlife of the area, changing a landscape that is so beautiful at all times of the year.

I know how hard the Blean /tyler hill community has been working to prevent the development happening and I hope that is taken into consideration when the overall decision is made.

Kind regards
Nicola Hogben
