To whom it may concern

I am writing in response to the question 'Do you have any comments on the proposed deletion of Land north of the University of Kent (policy C12)?'

I am in full agreement of the deletion of this policy and am glad that mine and thousands of others objections were listened to. Recent months where we have had power cuts and ongoing traffic issues has shown me that this area does not have the infrastructure for the current houses, let alone 2000 more.

Should any further proposals be put forward for large developments in this area, I will continue to put forward my objections.

I feel that on this occasion we have been listened to and I appreciate that.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Joanne Sazant
