Good afternoon, Aaron

I misunderstood your first request as you only mentioned completing a response. Unfortunately, the survey has now closed.

Would you be able to send in your response as a written representation as we will still be able to accept this.

Also, could you submit your email by Friday 9am at the latest.

Thank you.

Kind regards

Helen

Good afternoon Consultations,

Thank you kindly for your response, I appreciate you must be very busy.

Thank you for confirming that an extension has been approved. I am very grateful. I am very close to submitting the survey, but was awaiting your response and any clarification regarding the revised deadline.

For clarity, my understanding is that the extension would run from the time of your email sent at approximately 13:35 today, as more than 24 hours had already passed since my original request. However, I would appreciate confirmation of the exact submission deadline when convenient.

In the absence of further clarification, I intend to submit my response before 13:30 on Thursday 21 May 2026.

Thank you again for your assistance.

Kind regards,
Aaron Cranston

Subject: Reasonable Adjustment Request

Dear Consultations Team,

I am writing to request a reasonable adjustment regarding the deadline for the Draft Canterbury District Local Plan Regulation 19 consultation.

I have ADHD, which affects the time I need to read, process and understand large volumes of complex information. I have found parts of the consultation process confusing and difficult to navigate, and I have struggled with the accessibility of the material and the volume of technical information provided.

Due to this, I need additional time to properly consider and understand the documents so that I can make an informed and sound representation.

As a reasonable adjustment, I would be very grateful if the Council could allow an additional 24 hours for me to submit my response.

Please could you confirm whether this can be accommodated.

Kind regards,
Aaron Cranston
