Dear Planning Management department,

Thank you for your continuing hard work on the CDLP. Please find attached a joint response from myself and two neighbours: Paul Ferguson and Kevin Jenner. Both are cc'd to this message.

Our comments focus principally on the environmental consequences of the plan.

Please note:

1. While two signatories have provided an e-signature no e-signature is available for Mr Jenner.
2. I work as Professor of Environmental Policy at the Open University (autosignature below) in which capacity I research and teach on environmental policy. Hence the CDLP process is of professional interest to me. However, I stress that I am co-author and co-signatory to this response in a personal rather than a professional capacity.

You will note some areas of our response respectfully call for a clarification from yourselves.

We hope this response will prove to be constructive and helpful to you as the next draft of the CDLP is prepared.

With all good wishes

David Humphreys
