I absolutely oppose the plans that have been made to expand Aylesham.

I live in woolage village and the plans you are proposing will ruin the village. I choose to buy a house in this location as this is where I grew up and have always loved the small, rural area. Your plans will have a negative impact on our village and we will not stand by and allow you to ruin it. I enjoy living surrounded by fields and chose to live in the countryside, not a built up small town. I have no idea how you keep getting away with building houses in all these green areas and wonder where you'll stop. I am very passionate about my village and love where I live, I will fight to the end before you build near it and ruin it. It will also lower the value of my house and I'm certain you won't want to make up any shortfall that I could potentially lose. Crime rate will be higher and I am no way prepared to share my village with anyone. I have lived here for 42 yrs and you will absolutely not be building here.
