I would like to object to the local planning regarding the expansion of aylesham, towards Woolage. This would destroy the beauty of the local area and put unnecessary stress on the poor local infrastructure. The roads are totally unsuitable for any more traffic. The Kent villages are unique, we have the title of the garden of England, let's not build all over it and destroy a valuable resource. Please could you keep me informed of any updates to the plans, using this email address. As planners you have a responsibility to protect our wonderful countryside, not be responsible for it's destruction. Be strong and stand up for what is right, not sell off our heritage to build a new road

Yours hopefully,
Christine Stamp
