To whom it may concern. Dear Sirs. Dukes Meadow surely must remain a countryside area. We have wild birds wildlife and plants all living within this area. It has been open countryside since the 1930's and my sister and I were born and bred a stones throw away. All the residence don't want a noisy road on their doorsteps and you can easily get from A to B as is done now. We have to keep the green spaces and pathways and Dukes Meadow should not be ruined by a few people who want a new road for some reason! It is enjoyed by walkers dog walkers old and young and we need the lovely walks to stay NOT pollution and noisy traffic. The people who want to destroy this evidently don't live nearby and they should spare a thought to saving countryside and to the local residents. They want locking up. Beryl Parnham and Nina Schofield
